Dear Friends in Christ.

Praise God for the surety of His promises toward us. All of God's promises are based on His love. A promise that is not based on love is not a real promise and the one making the promise doesn't have to keep it. All of God's promises are backed by His love therefore they carry the divine yes with them.

For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. 2Co 1:20

Before the promises came the promise (singular). "I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God. EXO 29:45.

"And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God. EXO 29:46

And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. REV 21:3

"Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high." Lu 24:49.

And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have heard from Me; Ac 1:4

"Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear. Ac 2:33

Not only does God promise to be our God but He also gives us promises (plural) that are reliable because of Jesus Christ and carry the divine yes.

Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2PE 1:2-4

These exceeding great and precious promises are ours because of who we are in Christ Jesus. The same God who loved us enough to give us His Son now promises to care for us and provide all things that pertain to life and godliness.

He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Romans 8:32

I pray that you will say yes to God's yes. Yes, I receive all you have provided!

I find the more I believe in His love the more I believe His promises. The more I believe His promises the more I am willing to receive what He has promised. The more I receive what He has promised the more I am assured of His love.

Be blessed in His great love today.

Thanks again for all your love, prayers, friendship and support.

Your Servant in Christ. ><>Wayne Brooke<><
